About the Governor Branstad Iowa History Fund: In 2015, Gov. Terry E. Branstad established The Governor Branstad Iowa History Fund as a nonprofit organization to promote Iowa history. Gov. Branstad is an Iowa history buff whose regular reading includes the Iowa History Journal magazine and various works on historical Iowa figures and events. With a passion for Iowa history and a keen interest in giving back to the state that has given him the honor of ascending from a rural Iowa farm to the governorship, Gov. Branstad will work through the Iowa History Fund to identify and provide resources to efforts across the state of Iowa that preserve Iowa history for future generations.
